“Corporate responsibility” isn’t something we do. It’s something we live.

It’s a pretty simple concept: healthier nonprofits and social enterprises can deliver more services to more people in need. That’s why Beyond the Bottom Line offers free expertise to help organizations get over financial hurdles. Need financial advice? Objective answers to tough questions?

Take us up on our offer. We want to help you succeed.

Pro Bono Services

Our financial expertise is especially valuable to those facing immediate challenges or who can’t afford our services right now. By donating time to organizations in need, we help them better understand their situations, strengthen their financial health and get on track for achieving their missions.

Ask the CFO

Having the right answer at the right time can set the course for future success. That’s why our CFOs offer high-level executives at nonprofits and social ventures 30-60 minutes of our time at no charge. When an objective, expert third-party opinion is important, it’s time to Ask the CFO.

Board Membership

Our principals serve on the boards of directors of several nonprofits. It’s worth the dedication because long-term financial guidance makes for a stronger, healthier organization to serve the community.

By having a seat at the table, we also get an insider’s view of the issues nonprofits face every day, so we know first-hand where our clients are coming from.

Free Breakfast Seminars

If you’re a CEO, executive director or senior financial executive, you can join us at locations throughout the DC and NYC areas for honest, in-depth answers to questions about important issues facing the community right now. The lively back-and-forth is rich with useful information, and you can learn a lot from answers to other people’s questions, too.

Career Coaching

We want to help other financial executives succeed by sharing the perspective we’ve gained. CFOs who are between jobs, might lose their jobs or are in other transitions can receive advice on how to plan a job search, refine a résumé, negotiate salaries or manage other career-development issues.

You don’t have to choose between a better world and the bottom line.
